

Mini Scissors from Seki - Blue

da: Cohana

Modello: KITDBR-COH45-057

These mini-scissors were created by Hasegawa Cutlery, a manufacturer of edged tools established in 1933 and located in Seki, Gifu Prefecture, Japan's foremost cutlery-making town. You can cut with these scissors by gripping them with your fingers and pinching lightly. Despite their small size, these cute mini-scissors have great cutting ability. They are the product of a scissors manufacturer's pride; time-tested, reliable craftsmanship; inventive ideas; and the production technology that forms their foundation. The small silk tassels are carefully handmade by Imasato, a specialist in tassels and knots founded in 1907 and located in Yame, Fukuoka Prefecture. For over 100 years, Imasato has been making tassels for Yame Chochin paper lanterns, which are a traditional handicraft. Imasato creates beautiful tassels that shine with subtle, artisanal skill. The cases for these scissors are made from high-quality, genuine leather. Even when placed in a pencil case, purse, or drawstring pouch, they can be stored compactly, making them convenient for carrying.

Price: € 19.85 (incl. VAT)

Shunuri small scissors with gold lacquer art - Red

da: Cohana

Modello: KITDBR-COH45-140

Small scissors with varnish and gold lacquer - lacquered through tamenuri technique (using a colored undercoat and a transparent top coat) - made by Hasegawa Cutlery in Seki City, Gifu Prefecture, one of Japan's foremost districts for edged tools - and added varnish and gold lacquer that give off a noble luster.

These beautiful scissors are decorated with an all-natural vermillion lacquer that will slowly change color throughout the years, which is a unique quality of natural lacquer. The decorative gold and silver tassel makes these scissors even more gorgeous.

Artisans have individually adjusted the bite of the blades for each pair of scissors, allowing them to cut sharply. As the tips are thin, you can use them easily for delicate and detailed work.

The scissors will be supplied with a small case made from real leather as well.

Each pair of scissors measures 10.5cm long and 5.3cm wide.

Weight: about 65g

Made in Japan

Price: € 116.04 (incl. VAT)

Banshu Sewing Shears with Lacquered Handles- Sakura

da: Cohana

Modello: KITDBR-COH45-202

In Banshu region at the heart of Hyogo Prefecture the smiths of the region's Tanaka Maister Co. have been handcrafting high-quality blades since 1955. Known for their exceptional sharpness and stability, Banshu blades are easy to sharpen, maintaining their original edge.

Each set of sewing sheers displays the elegance of traditional beauty of lacquerware, but color is not typical. Smooth fitting and easy to use, the special pink lacquer handles are as functional as they are beautiful.

Handles made using casting techniques initially have fine bumps on the surface. Each of them is polished by craftsmen's hands. In order to apply lacquer nicely, the unevenness of the hard steel needs to be scraped away and the surface patiently smoothed by hand. There are individual differences in each piece, but please enjoy them as a texture that shows the craftsmanship.

These stunning cutting tools come in a leather case with gilt tassels and a traditional Banshu cloth. The SAKURA pink cloth that wraps the scissors is from the same Banshu region as the sewing scissors.

Scissors measure 22cm long and 7cm wide.

Blade Length: 9cm

Made in Japan
