Je crée 71 - Peindre sur soie
Catherine Vialay got inspired by impressionist painting, such as the one of Gauguin, a revolutionary of his times ...She invites you to follow her for a walk among flowered gardens, on the beaches of the Marquesas Islands or on the sides of shimmering rivers. You will enjoy recreating the nature on silk, wool or linen. Actually, Catherine Vialay details step by step 2 on-silk painting techniques that are not very traditional, with original effects: shading and bleaching with alcohol in a landscape, gutta on cheescloth wool.

Le boutis brodé & perlé

Das Boutis, mit seiner makellosen Weißgrad, reicht sich selbst aus, aber Dominique Fave hat jedenfalls Perlen, Bänder, Stickerei beigefügt, um es moderner zu tun.

Das Band, um das Werk hervorzuheben, die Stickereien, um noch bestimmte Reliefs zu erhöhen.

Einige Grundstiche und Perlen haben ihr die Gelegenheit erlaubt, verschiedene Werke zu erstellen, die den Farben Raum geben. Das beweist, dass das Boutis sich mit anderen Techniken und Materialien kombinieren kann.

We all have hanging on our walls our favorite pictures, but at times the frames might look a little old. The best way to give them a little contemporary touch, while still keeping it traditional, is to use a straight bevel, as it gives depth and elegance to frames. With this work, Christelle Vésin will introduce you to the basic techniques so that you will be able to create 17 kinds of frames, clearly explained step-by-step:

Straight bevels and multiple passe-partouts

Straight bevels dressed in different colors

Straight bevels and fake fitted frames

Straight bevels and embossing

Straight bevels dressed in trellis

And much more ...

Following the instructions, you will be able to reproduce these frames or pick up great ideas to make some brand new ones!

Les lapins tricotés - Ciboulette & Paprika au marché
The idea of putting up some farm animals, with the two bunnies called Ciboulette and Paprika, had been already swirling around in the head of Isabelle Glavier for some time. The story was then born, turning her childhood dreams into reality, with a whole lot of stuffed animals, knitted with wool.

So, little sheep, bunnies, cows, pigs, kittens, dogs and ducks, with or without clothes, can be knitted with a simple base that's the same for most of their bodies. And when you think of a farm, you think of a vegetable garden, too, with an inviting basket of leeks, carrots, salads and roots ... all crocheted in lively colors.

A number of ideas to create characters and act as you do in role playing. A little, sweet world to knit quickly. By Isabelle Glavier and Joëlle Simon
