Favorite things

In a world that is going faster and faster, it is the sustainable things that make a difference. This also includes sewing and tailoring clothing. The designs for children's garments in this book are not bought quickly and just as quickly discarded, but are carefully thought out and homemade. They are thought to give children freedom of movement to play and discover the world around them. This book is a loving joint project by Daniela Drescher, who stimulates our imagination with her illustrations in the book and on the fabrics - Monika Popp, the creator of the sewing patterns - Eva-Maria Maier, who complements children's fashion with her detailed accessories - Elisabeth Esch, who sewed all the beautiful designs and breathed life into the clothes and last but not least Michèle Brunnmeier, who once again tells true stories in her unmistakable way with her photographs. 96 pages, text in German, but with clear and easy follow charts and images.
