A prolific and visionary quilter, Sue has created 14 pictorial quilts of unparalleled imagination and beauty. Sue Ross has a style that is recognizable immediately. Although a traditionalist at heart, she combines her love of color found in modern and contemporary art and artefacts with classic patterns and blocks.

Sue dares with her unusual color, and wildly varied fabric, combinations. The results are quilts composed of Churn Dashes, 8-Point Stars, Dahlias, Ohio Stars, Orphan blocks, Propellers, French Stars... in plaids, old toiles, Madras prints, Jouy prints, reproduction florals, leopard prints and contemporary fabrics!

For those who love trying their hand at multiple techniques, Sue's book is a feast for those who love English Paper Piecing, appliqué, fussy cutting and Broderie Perse. Books on art and décor, sources of inspiration for Sue, abound, along with a wealth of quilts and quilt tops arrayed here and there on a sofa corner, a table, or a chair.

Big, Bold & Colourful Quilts for all Quilters

da: Quiltmania

Modello: LIBQM-CJ

Chris Jurd is an Australian artist who lives in the Sydney area. She has been quilting for almost thirty years and teaches in her home as well as at many shops and workshops. Chris is also very active in The Quilters' Guild of NSW.

She loves original prints in vibrant colours, using them with flair in her pieced and highly geometric quilts marked by bold design. Chris also uses English paper-piecing, which she describes in the book's technical section. Her signature is the frequent use of black to emphasize some elements of the design and to give dimension to her quilts. This method is evocative of the stained-glass technique, revisited with a modern touch and much originality. The book includes a brief section on technique, in which Chris reveals her tips and hints. Fourteen quilts are fully explained and accompanied by their full-sized templates.
