Danish Flower Thread #000

da: Haandarbejdets Fremme

Modello: FILHAA-000

100% cotton thread, 20mt. skein.

The Dansk Blomstergarn threads (universally known as Danish Flower Threads) have been called like this by the Haandarbejdets Fremme as a tribute to the well-known artist Gerda Bengtsson, designer of the popular flowered embroideries sold by this Danish brand. These threads are famous for their softness and for they give to embroideries a light and delicate effect. Their colors are actually made by trying to be similar to natural colors and they are dyed in a light but very solid way as they are water-resistant. The initial selection of these colors is the same from 1929 when their creator, Einar Hansen, gave them to the Haandarbejdets Fremme.

The Dansk Blomstergarn threads (universally known as Danish Flower Threads) have been called like this by the Haandarbejdets Fremme as a tribute to the well-known artist Gerda Bengtsson, designer of the popular flowered embroideries sold by this Danish brand. These threads are famous for their softness and for they give to embroideries a light and delicate effect. Their colors are actually made by trying to be similar to natural colors and they are dyed in a light but very solid way as they are water-resistant. The initial selection of these colors is the same from 1929 when their creator, Einar Hansen, gave them to the Haandarbejdets Fremme.
