Baker's Twine White/Rose

da: La Croix et La Manière

Modello: FILMIL-KIPM-ROSE

In Paris, during the Belle Epoque, it was used mainly by bakers, to wrap up their delicious pastries, just like a twine... But with that two-color, extra, definitely French, something! Some creative customer soon started to use it for more elegant packs and to fix lovely tags and labels on any kind of gift wrapping! Nowadays is much loved for the most different craft projects - from scrapbooking to carton perforé - and it always offers high resistance, matching sober elegance! 35-meter spool, 10 grams. 100% cotton
